Buset, President Socialist Party, on leaving met with Prime Minister at 10 a.m. today reminded correspondents of his editorial on July 29 and remarked that perhaps he would see King. (In editorial Buset said he would only see King in order to assist in arranging abdication and that King would be astonished at Buset's understanding and good will---EMBTEL 142, July 29). At 11 a.m. Prime Minister announced King will receive Buset.

Liberal Party President Motz on leaving meeting with Prime Minister was asked if any agreement had been reached. He said no agreement but possible elements of agreement existed on Liberal side. He refused to speak for Socialists.
